1. All contracts made between the Company and the customer are subject to the Terms & Conditions herein set out and to no others. The Company shall not be bound by any Terms & Conditions sought to be imposed by the customer howsoever sought to be incorporated by the customer. No variation of these Terms & Conditions shall be binding upon the Company unless evidence in writing by the Company.

2. Title & Payment

- a) The goods shall remain the sole and absolute property of the Company as legal and beneficial owner until such time as the customer shall have paid to the Company the agreed price, together with the full price of any goods, the subject of any contract with the customer.
- b) Until such payment, the customer shall be in possession of the goods solely as bailee for the company and in a fiduciary capacity shall store the goods in such way as to enable them to be identified as the property of the Company.
- c) The Company reserves the immediate right of possession of any goods to which they have retained title as aforesaid and thereafter to re-sell the same and for that purpose the customer hereby grants an irrevocable right and licence of the Company, its servants or agents to enter upon all or any part of their premises with or without vehicles during normal business hours. The right shall continue to subsist notwithstanding the termination of the contract for any reason and is without prejudice to any accrued rights of the Company thereunder or otherwise.
- d) Notwithstanding the title to the said goods is reserved to the Company upon delivery.
- e) Payment of invoices shall unless otherwise agreed in writing be made in full without any deduction or set off within 30 days of the date of the invoice. Any extension of credit allowed to the customer may be changed or withdrawn at any time and the Company reserve the right to require immediate payment. Interest shall be payable on overdue accounts at the rate of 3% per annum above the base rate for the time being of Barclays Bank plc and such interest to run from the due date of payment until receipt by the Company of the full amount as well after as before any judgement.

3. Liability

The Company hereby expressly excludes all or any sought to be made by the customer for alleged consequential loss of any nature whatsoever and howsoever arising so that the Company's liability shall not in any circumstances exceed the original net invoice price for the goods, the subject of any claim.

4. Inspection and Acceptance

- a) The customer shall inspect all goods as soon as reasonably practical after delivery and shall in any event give notice in writing to the Company not more than 7days after delivery as to any alleged defect. Failing such notice the goods shall be deemed to have been in accordance with the contract and the customer shall be deemed to have accepted the goods and be liable for payment therefore.
- b) Without prejudice to the foregoing, the customer will inspect the goods before dealing with the same by way of incorporation of the goods into any other goods or otherwise to the intent that the Company shall not be liable for any defect in the goods once the same have been used by the customer or incorporated in other goods.
- c) Any claim or alleged damage, loss or partial loss of goods in transit must be given in writing to the Company within three days of delivery.
